BENEVOLENCE POLICY STATEMENT

1. The ITEA benevolence webpages are designed to be a bulletin board only, directing interested people to charity organizations and events.
2. The ITEA will not collect or distribute funds for any not-for-profit, charity, or benevolent association except under express authority of the Board of Directors.
3. The ITEA will promote, free of charge, charity organizations and events sponsored by a member of the ITEA or his employer.
4. Promotion of charity organizations or events not associated with a member or his employer will be considered on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
5. Any charity organization or event promoted by the ITEA does not constitute an endorsement of the organization or event.
6. The ITEA, through the Board of Directors, reserves the right to decline to promote any charity event or organization.
7. The ITEA reserves the right to edit any content that is to be posted on the website.
8. Participation in charity organizations or events is at the will of any member. Involvement, or lack of involvement, in charity events or organizations shall have no bearing on membership of current or potential members.
